

For more info on the course of the Gorges de l'Ardèche

To for the Ardeche Gorge, you'll need at least 4 days of running at 15 km per day on average. But this hike will be even more interesting if you stay there for 5, 6 or 7 days. You can then descend to the bottom of the gorge, including cultural visits (regional museum of prehistory, the cave Orgnac, Castle Labastide de Virac ...) and take an afternoon or two to stay in the sun and bathe

Day 1 : Vallon Pont d'Arc – St Remèze - 15 km - 5 à 6 h de marche par le GR4F

A good day of hiking, climbing the first step on the plateau des Gras Circus Estre. Nice view on the site of the famous Pont d'Arc, then Gr4 plunges into the undergrowth, it's cool and takes you to the village of St Remèze where you can stop at the stage lodging, hotel or in a small farm camping.

Day 2 : St Remèze – Loop through the Gorge on the way to Coalman. 10km.

Back to St Remèze late in the day.

Stroll down the gorge by an old mule track and swimming in the River.

Day 3 : St Remèze – St Martin d'Ardèche - 14 km- 5 h de marche- sentier de pays.

This walk on the sets of grooves, large uninhabited area, you will just cross the small village where the hostel Can serves excellent snacks filled with local specialty. Then you go down to the Ardèche and reach a comfortable accommodation that blends art and the rest.

Day 4 : St Martin d'Ardèche – Orgnac- 15 km - 5 à 6 h de marche GR4.

You can discover a dolmen, the natural entrance of an abyss, the great lauze (huge slab of limestone which is recovering water) ... Fauna, flora ... Accommodation is at the municipal camping under the oaks at 'away from other campers or the "Hôtel de l'Aven***" in the village (comfortable room and good food) or the hotel "les Satalagmites**" (good address too) or at the "Hotel du Diaprysis**" 100m from the site of the famous cave.

Day 5 : Orgnac – Orgnac. Boucle de 3, 6, 10 km au choix.

Small walk to Orgnac and regional museum of prehistory, it would be nice to visit those places that will help you understand our landscape and ancient heritage. And you can also stay near the municipal pool to finish the day. Even accommodation

Day 6 : Orgnac – La Bastide de Virac. Petite étape de 7 km ou plus si l'on zigzague dans la forêt.

You can go visit the castle of La Bastide de Virac and discover a beautiful view from the parapet walk and also see raising silkworms.

Camping or guest room.

Day 7 : La Bastide de Virac – Vallon Pont d'Arc. 12 km by GR4.

A nice way to bring you back Vallon

All good advice on your course and management of donkeys will be given the day before or the day of departure. This course is modular. The supply and a good meal in the evening are available every day in small villages along the route.

Trekking in the gorges de la Cèze 4 à 7 jours

This beautiful trail you will discover the Gorges the Ceze and rally the gorges of Ardeche, see combine the two for a great trip.

Many dolmens mark this circuit.

You can go for at least 4 days, but in 5 or 7 days this hike will become even more interesting.

Because you have the time to get to the heart of the Gorges Ceze river which is high in nature. On a beautiful beach deprived of one of our hosting you can practice bathing in peace

Modulate your circuit but will book your accommodation well in good order.

The roads are often forest tracks, so easy with children, the gradients are weak this circuit. You'll have beautiful views and sights to discover ...
